A very pleasant and easy stroll along a path to a stunning view. Starting from Barnetts Road car park you follow the footpath through the picnic area, past the playground then meander gently downhill through the open forest among the scribbly gum trees. You soon discover a fenced lookout platform with amazing views up and down the Berowra Valley. The views of trees go on forever, on a clear day you can even see the Blue Mountains.

0 | Barnetts Road

(50 m 1 mins) From the 'Barnetts Road Reserve' car park (at the junction of Barnetts Rd and Wyanna St, Berowra), this walk follows the concrete footpath between the timber bollards (1.3m gap) away from the road. After 25m this walk passes a short path to a picnic table (on the left), about 20m later this walk comes to another path and picnic table (on the right). Here the walk also comes to a drinking fountain in the middle of the picnic area, beside a playground and near some extra seats.

0.05 | Barnetts Picnic area

The Barnetts Road Reserve picnic area, boasts three picnic tables, a drinking fountain, a playground and seats a short distance from the road. The area is surrounded by some open grass area and native forest. Easy flat and smooth access from the road.

(160 m 3 mins) Continue straight: From the picnic area, this walk follows the footpath away from the road and after about 25m the walk passes another picnic table (on the left). Here the walk continues on the main path, gently downhill through the open forest for about 60m to a seat (beside the path, on the right). From the seat this walk continues winding gently downhill towards the views for another 70m to a intersection with a faint track beside the plaque commemorating the establishment of Berowra Valley NP. (The faint, less formal track, leads downhill for 60m to a fenced lookout). From the plaque this walk continues a few more meters along the concrete path, around the bend to the left to find the fenced 'Barnetts Lookout'.

0.21 | Barnetts Lookout

Barnetts Lookout provides stunning views over Berowra Creek and the surprisingly wild Berowra Valley NP. There are two stone seats, a concrete base (4.6x4m) and a 1.3m high metal fence (filtered views when seated in a wheelchair). To the left there are views upstream along Berowra Creek past Calna Creek, on a clear day you can just make out the Blue Mountains straight ahead and Berowra Waters to the right.
